The Struggle

Every person on the spiritual path goes thru a crucifixion, as you make an intense thrust toward the temple, all the negative forces within become active, and present a block. With some people it causes pain and illness - thru this struggle, one is purified, as we move thru the experience on the path, we realize there is a great compensation for our effort and struggle. The body and mind becomes a clearer instrument for the forces of Light. The spiritual fire descends in the heart and mind. One moves in pure joy and freedom.
